

Nokia 6610i

Organise your business day

Call Australia Mobile

Get the most out of your day with the Nokia 6610i. General packet radio (GPRS) ensures convenient, 'always on' data browsing, making it easy for you to quickly download applications for business. You can also synchronise data with your PC or phone, allowing you to back up your contacts, schedules and 'to-do' lists remotely. And an integrated hands-free speaker makes multi-tasking easy. It's sure to make your day (and organise it as well).
